Wine Tasting at Saddlebrook

Learning how to taste wines is a straightforward adventure that will deepen your appreciation for both wines and winemakers. Come join Saddlebrook's own wine expert, who will teach you the correct form and various steps when tasting wine.

Look, smell, taste – starting with your basic senses and expanding from there you will learn how to taste wines like the pros in no time! Keep in mind that you can smell thousands of unique scents, but your taste perception is limited to salty, sweet, sour and bitter. It is the combination of smell and taste that allows you to discern flavor.

In addition to learning the basics of wine tasting you will get advice on serving and storing, glassware, buying strategies, and pairing food with wine. Regardless of your current level of knowledge, this session will be a valuable tool as you explore the fascinating and rewarding world of wine. So sit back, listen, taste and come away with a better understanding of why wine has become such an important mainstay in modern cuisine.

Tuesday, March 2, 2010 • 10:00 am – 11:30 am • Price - $60.00
